Appeal following Enfield stabbing

Police in Enfield would like to hear from members of the public who witnessed a stabbing and are appealing for anyone with information to come forward.

Police were called on Tuesday, 26 June at 13:00 hours to a report of a man injured in Bounces Road, Enfield.

Officers attended along with the London Ambulance Service and found a 25-year-old man with stab injuries.

The injured man was taken to an east London hospital by LAS where his injuries were deemed not life threatening.

Officers from Enfield Major Crime Unit investigate. At this early stage there are no arrests. Enquiries are ongoing.

Detective Sergeant Joel Gregory of Enfield CID, said: “This incident happened at a busy location outside Best Kebab. I am confident that there are people who witnessed this incident who have not come forward. If you saw the stabbing taken place and have not yet spoken with police please do call us.”

Anyone who witnessed this incident or has information should call Enfield Major Crime Unit on 101 and quote CAD 3928/26JUN18.
