

[Victim: Kelva Smith]

Jun 01, 2018 13:42 BST

Third charge in Kelva Smith murder investigation

Police investigating the fatal stabbing of 20-year-old Kelva Smith in South Norwood on Monday, 5 March have charged a third person in connection with his murder.

A 15-year-old boy [A] was charged on Thursday, 31 May with murder and possession of an offensive weapon (knife).

He will appear at Croydon Magistrates' Court in custody today, Friday, 1 June.

Two other teenagers have previously been charged.

They are:

[B] Tyrone Farquharsan, 19 (23.09.98), of Archer Road, South Norwood, charged on Wednesday, 7 March with murder and possession of an offensive weapon (knife).

[C] A 14-year-old boy charged on Saturday, 10 March with murder, possession of an offensive weapon (knife) and attempted wounding.

[B] and [C] have been remanded in custody with a trial set to start at the Old Bailey on Monday, 10 September.

We aim to make London the safest global city;
Be the best crime-fighters, by any measure;
Earn the trust and confidence of every community;
Take pride in the quality of our service;
So people love, respect and are proud of London's Met