Three charged in relation to moped-enabled crimes

Three people have been charged in relation to two moped-enabled smash and grabs.

Officers from the Violent Crime Task Force and Flying Squad executed seven warrants across Camden, Islington and Haringey on Wednesday, 20 June and made four arrests.

Three of the four have been charged as follows:

[A] Henry Histon, 18 (21.02.00), of Gilbert Place, WC1A, has been charged with conspiracy to commit robbery, grievous bodily harm with intent and aggravated burglary with intent.

[B] A 17-year-old male has been charged with conspiracy to commit robbery and grievous bodily harm with intent.

[C] Alfie Warry, 20 (03.09.97), of Baldwins Gardens, EC1N, has been charged with aggravated burglary.

They appeared in custody at Highbury Corner Magistrates' Court on Thursday, 21 June.

They have been remanded to appear at Blackfriars Crown Court on Monday, 9 July.

The fourth person arrested, a 22-year-old man [D], has been released under investigation pending further enquiries.
