Two men charged with drugs offences in Walthamstow

Two men have been charged with drugs offences following recent proactive activity by the Met to suppress drug dealing in the Waltham Forest borough.

Mohamed Mohamed, 17.09.2000 and Yusef Nur, 03.10.1990 both of no fixed address, were charged on Tuesday, 24 March with conspiracy to supply Class A drugs.

Both men will appear at Stratford Magistrates' Court on 25 March.

They were arrested on Wednesday, 4 March following early morning warrants by the north-east Proactive Gangs Unit and Territorial Support Group.
