

Aug 30, 2018 05:18 BST

Woman charged with fraud offences related to Grenfell Tower fire

A woman who worked for Kensington and Chelsea Council has been charged with fraud offences relating to the Grenfell Tower fire.

Jenny McDonagh, 39 (30.06.79) from Abbey Wood was charged today, Thursday, 30 August with two counts of fraud by abuse of position, one count of theft by employee and one count of money laundering.

The charges relate to having obtained money intended for those affected by the tragedy while being neither a survivor nor a bereaved family member herself.

She was arrested on Wednesday, 29 August following her initial arrest on Wednesday, 1 August.

She will appear in custody at Westminster Magistrates' Court later this morning, Thursday, 30 August.

We aim to make London the safest global city;
Be the best crime-fighters, by any measure;
Earn the trust and confidence of every community;
Take pride in the quality of our service;
So people love, respect and are proud of London's Met