

Feb 18, 2021 14:23 GMT

A man has been charged in connection with a stabbing in Ealing

A man has been charged in connection with a stabbing in Ealing.

Daniel Haisley, 34 (15.03.86) of Eversley Crescent, Hounslow, was charged on Wednesday, 17 February with Section 18 wounding with intent and possession of a knife in a public place.

He appeared in custody at Uxbridge Magistrates Court that same day where he was remanded in custody to appear at Isleworth Crown Court on Wednesday, 17 March.

The charges relate to the stabbing of a male, aged 20s, at 18:22hrs on Wednesday, 20 January at The Vale, at the junction with Curric Street, W3. The victim was taken to hospital and has since been discharged.