Appeal to identify man following assault

Police are appealing for information following an assault at a bar in Wandsworth.

Police were called just before 02:00hrs on Sunday, 18 February to reports of an assault at the Graffiti Bar on Garratt Lane in Earlsfield.

A 25-year-old man was hit in the face with a glass causing lacerations above and below his left eye.

The London Ambulance Service attended and took the man to a south London hospital where he received several stitches before being discharged.

The suspect is described as a slim white man, aged in his mid 20s, 5ft 7ins tall with short light brown hair. He was wearing a long-sleeved shirt, dark jeans and dark shoes.

PC Rob Clarke, from Wandsworth Borough, said: “This is a nasty unprovoked attack on a man who was dancing on the dancefloor. We are appealing for anyone who may have seen the attack to come forward.”

Anyone with any information are asked to call Wandsworth CID on 101 quoting reference 801/18Feb18 or tweet @MetCC.
