

Jul 23, 2018 15:57 BST

Cyclist who died in Islington collision named as detectives appeal for information

A cyclist who died following a collision with a car in Islington has been named as detectives continue in their appeal for information.

Police were called at around 00:20hrs on Friday, 6 July to reports of a car in collision with a cyclist on Goswell Road at the junction with Percival Street, EC1.

The cyclist, a 38-year-old man, was taken by the London Ambulance Service to a north London hospital in a critical condition.

He died on Wednesday, 11 July and has now been formally identified as Soren Aarlev, 38, of Haggerston.

His next of kin have been informed.

The driver of the car stopped at the scene; he was not arrested.

Enquiries remain ongoing.

Anyone who can assist the investigation is asked to contact the Serious Collision Investigation Unit at Alperton on 020 8991 9555 and quote CAD 97/6Jul.

Officers are particularly keen to hear from anyone who saw the collision take place or has moving footage.

We aim to make London the safest global city;
Be the best crime-fighters, by any measure;
Earn the trust and confidence of every community;
Take pride in the quality of our service;
So people love, respect and are proud of London's Met