Investigation following death of man in Hounslow

At approximately 00:05hrs on Tuesday, 20 April officers attempted to stop a vehicle on Powder Mill Lane in Twickenham. The vehicle failed to stop and a pursuit commenced.

A short while later a male decamped from the vehicle and ran onto a nearby railway line off Whitton Road in Hounslow. The London Ambulance Service attended and he was pronounced dead at 00:22hrs.

His next of kin has been informed and are being supported by specialist officers.

The Independent Office for Police Conduct has been informed and has declared an independent investigation.

The Met's Directorate of Professional Standards has also been informed.
