Investigation into unexplained death in Croydon

An investigation has been launched after the body of a woman was found at the rear of a block of flats in Croydon.

Police were called to St Andrews Road, Croydon at 0924hrs on Tuesday, 19 June to reports of a body found.

Officers attended and found the body of a 43-year-old woman at the rear of Flagon Court, a low rise apartment block. She was pronounced dead at the scene.

Her next-of-kin have been informed.

Detectives have arrested a 55-year-old male in connection with the incident. He was taken to a south London police station and bailed pending further enquiries.

A post mortem was carried out on 21 June at Croydon hospital, and gave the cause of death as injuries consistent with falling from a height.

Officers from Croydon CID are leading the investigation. At this early stage the death is being treated as unexplained.

Anyone who has information concerning this incident should call Croydon CID by dialling 101 or call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.
