

Apr 30, 2021 16:30 BST

Man charged with firearms offences after Skorpion machine gun recovered

A man has been charged with firearms offences after a Skorpion machine gun and 200 rounds of ammunition were recovered from an address in Northolt

Sheikhnor Abdullah, 19, (04.03.02) of Cranberry Close, Northolt has been charged with possession of a firearm with intent to endanger life, possession of a prohibited weapon, and possession of ammunition.

Abdullah was remanded into police custody and appeared before Westminster Magistrates Court today where he was further remanded.

Abdullah will appear before Isleworth Crown Court on Tuesday, 4 May.

A firearms warrant was carried out in the early hours of Thursday, 29 April at a residential address in Northolt.