

[Victim: Hani Solomon]

Feb 22, 2021 15:00 GMT

Third person charged in Hani Solomon murder investigation

A third person has been charged with murder following the fatal stabbing of Hani Solomon in Parsons Green.

A 17-year-old male [E] was arrested on Sunday, 21 February. He was charged on Monday, 22 February with murder and grievous bodily harm.

He appeared in custody at Highbury Corner Magistrates' Court on Tuesday, 23 February and was remanded in custody to next appear at the Old Bailey on Thursday, 25 February.

Police were called shortly before 19:00hrs on Thursday, 11 February to reports of a stabbing in Ackmar Road, SW6. 18-year-old Hani Solomon was pronounced dead at the scene.

Two other people have been charged as part of this investigation.

[C] Ahmed Fatah, 18 (14.10.02) of Fulham Road, SW6 and [D] a 17-year-old male of Fulham were charged on Friday, 19 February with the murder of Hani Solomon and causing grievous bodily harm to a second victim.

They appeared in custody at Westminster Magistrates' Court on Friday, 19 February. They will next appear at the Old Bailey on Tuesday, 23 February.

A 23-year-old man [A] remains on bail until a date in mid-March. A fourth man [B] was released with no further action.