UPDATE: re murder of Therasia Gordon in Enfield

A man charged with the murder of Therasia Gordon in Enfield will next appear at the Old Bailey in October.

Brian Sengendo, 25 (05.01.95), of Gilbert Street EN3, appeared at Willesden Magistrates' Court on Saturday 8 August charged with murder, attempted murder, making threats to kill, and two counts of possession of an offensive weapon.

He appeared at the Old Bailey on Tuesday, 11 August. He is next due to appear at the same court on Thursday, 27 October.

Police were called at 06:53hrs on Thursday, 6 August to a wooded area in Burnt Farm Ride, Enfield, after a female was found unresponsive.

Officers attended with the London Ambulance Service and the woman was pronounced dead at the scene.

She has since been named as Therasia Gordon, 44, who lived in Edmonton.

A post-mortem examination held at Haringey Mortuary has returned a provisional cause of death as a stab injury to the abdomen.

+ The charges of attempted murder and threats to kill relate to two further female victims.
