UPDATE: Man charged with sexual assault onboard bus

Detectives investigating after a teenage boy was sexually assaulted on a bus in west London have charged a man.

Zakaria Mohammed, 27 (28.10.93) of, Arnold Road, Ealing, was charged on Tuesday, 12 October with one count of false imprisonment, one count of sexual assault and one count of inciting a child to engage in sexual activity.

He was remanded in custody to appear at Isleworth Crown Court on Tuesday, 9 November.

The charge follows an allegation of sexual assault involving a teenage boy that was reported to have occurred onboard a Route 282 bus on Thursday, 12 August.
